Since 1999, when rabbitudes became form in Taiwan, concepts have become more and more animal; on 2nd of June 2001 - in the Year of the Snake - Rabbit and Dragon tied the knot and fused into a "Rabbidragon". On 5th of June they flew to Rostock making a boattrip on the MS Stubnitz shipping to Hamburg celebrating their honeymoon on the deck of the ship during the day and at night in a berth for a couple called "Förderkoje" trying to produce a snake. Suddenly the Rabbit threw her original bridal bouquet overboard so that the crew had to rescue it from the Baltic Sea by a dramatic "manceuvre: bridal bouquet overboard !". After arrival in Hamburg it is said that Rabbidragon visited the "Basilisk"-Show at the Museum für Völkerkunde and a few days later they were seen in Basel...
